

Agenda:

ENNHRI Co-Lab: AI

30 November – 1 December 2023

Ljubljana, Slovenia

---

Day 1 - 30 November 2023
Time (CET)	Session and speakers
09:00	Registration and welcome desk
09:30	Welcome and Opening <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Peter Svetina, Human Rights Ombudsman of the Republic of Slovenia</li> <li>- Mirosław Wróblewski, Director, Office of the Polish Commissioner for Human Rights, ENNHRI Board member</li> <li>- Dr. Emilija Stojmenova Duh, Minister of Digital Transformation of the Republic of Slovenia</li> </ul>
09:55	Introduction of the participants and event objectives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Sophie Hale, Human Rights Officer, ENNHRI Secretariat</li> </ul>
10:45	Setting the scene: NHRIs, their mandate, and their role on AI and human rights in Europe Overview of ENNHRI's engagement and work on AI so far, followed by an introduction of NHRIs' mandate related to AI, with an interactive discussion on AI, human rights and the role of NHRIs and small group discussions on how NHRIs are using their mandate to address the topic. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Nele Roekens, Unia, Chair of the AI Working Group</li> </ul>
11:25	Break (30 mins)
11:55	Overview of first small group sessions: Using the NHRI mandate to work on AI Overview and instructions for first small group sessions Sophie Hale, ENNHRI Secretariat

12:00	Presentations in plenary: Using the NHRI mandate to work on AI There will be four presentations in plenary on the different ways that NHRIs can use their mandate to work on AI and human rights. This will be followed by four small group sessions to further discuss the topics after lunch. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Group 1: Prevention – NHRIs role in Human Rights Impact Assessments Line Gamrath Rasmussen and Mikkel Lindberg Laursen, Danish Institute for Human Rights</li> <li>- Group 2: Monitoring and reporting – Mapping the use of AI systems in public administration Kejsi Rizo, People’s Advocate of Albania</li> <li>- Group 3: Advising government Robert Bancroft, Equality and Human Rights Commission, Great Britain</li> <li>- Group 4: Complaints handling and investigations Justin Hoegen Dijkhof, Netherlands Institute for Human Rights</li> </ul>
13:00	Lunch break (1 hour)
14:00	Small group sessions: How to use NHRI mandate to work on AI (continued) There will be four 20 minute small group sessions with guiding questions to discuss the four topics. Each group shall rotate through each session with feedback at the end in plenary. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Group 1: Prevention – NHRIs role in Human Rights Impact Assessments Line Gamrath Rasmussen and Mikkel Lindberg Laursen, Danish Institute for Human Rights</li> <li>- Group 2: Monitoring and reporting – Mapping the use of AI systems in public administration Kejsi Rizo, People’s Advocate of Albania</li> <li>- Group 3: Advising government Robert Bancroft, Equality and Human Rights Commission, Great Britain</li> <li>- Group 4: Complaints handling and investigations Justin Hoegen Dijkhof, Netherlands Institute for Human Rights</li> </ul> Plenary feedback and Q&amp;A Each group reports back to plenary.
15:40	Break (30 mins)
16.10	Panel: AI and its impacts across human rights Panel in plenary looking at AI and its impacts across human rights and the roles that NHRIs can and do play across thematic areas. Followed by Q&amp;A with members. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Overview of major thematic areas impacted by AI</li> </ul>

	Sue Anne Teo, University of Copenhagen, ENNHRI Consultant <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Impacts of AI and new technologies on asylum and migration</li> </ul> Caterina Rodelli, Access Now <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Impacts of AI and new technologies on the rights of people with psychosocial disabilities</li> </ul> Francesca Centola, Mental Health Europe <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Impacts of AI on the judiciary and rule of law</li> </ul> Dr Giulia Gentile, University of Essex <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Q&amp;A</li> </ul>
17:00	Closing and key points: Day 1 Closing and overview of next day's programme Katrien Meuwissen, ENNHRI Secretariat
19:00	Networking dinner

Day 2 – 1 December 2023
Time (CET)	Session and speakers
09:00	Welcome Day 2 Welcome and overview of day Katrien Meuwissen, ENNHRI Secretariat
09.05	Overview of second small group sessions: AI through a thematic lens Overview and instructions for second small group sessions Sophie Hale, ENNHRI Secretariat
09.20	Presentations in plenary: AI through a thematic lens There will be four presentations in plenary on the different thematic ways that AI impacts human rights. This will be followed by four small group sessions to further discuss the topics after the break. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Group 1: Economic and Social Rights Led by ESCR Working Group (Andreea Moroianu, Romanian Institute for Human Rights)</li> <li>- Group 2: Asylum and Migration Led by A&amp;M Working Group (Eva Tzavala, Greek National Commission for Human Rights)</li> <li>- Group 3: CRPD Led by CRPD Working Group (Jerneja Turin, Human Rights Ombudsman of the Republic of Slovenia)</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Group 4: Securitisation and law enforcement Led by AI Working Group / Legal Working Group (Thomas Dumortier, French National Consultative Commission on Human Rights)</li> </ul>
10:00	Break (30 mins)
10.30	Small group sessions: AI through a thematic lens (continued) There will be four 20 minute small group sessions with guiding questions to discuss the four topics. Each group shall rotate through each session with feedback at the end in plenary. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Group 1: Economic and Social Rights Led by ESCR Working Group (Andreea Moroianu, Romanian Institute for Human Rights)</li> <li>- Group 2: Asylum and Migration: AI and new technologies at the borders Led by A&amp;M Working Group (Eva Tzavala, Greek National Commission for Human Rights)</li> <li>- Group 3: CRPD Led by CRPD Working Group (Jerneja Turin, Human Rights Ombudsman of the Republic of Slovenia)</li> <li>- Group 4: Securitisation and law enforcement Led by AI Working Group / Legal Working Group (Thomas Dumortier, French National Consultative Commission on Human Rights)</li> </ul> Plenary feedback and Q&amp;A Each group reports back to plenary followed by Q&amp;A with members.
12:10	Lunch break (1 hour)
13.10	Plenary Discussion: Main learnings and Opportunities of AI for NHRIs Interactive discussion in plenary beginning with a summary of what has been learnt so far, followed by Q&amp;A focused on risks and opportunities of AI for NHRIs. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Summary of main learnings so far Nele Roekens, Unia, AI Working Group Chair</li> <li>- Erinda Ballanca, People's Advocate of Albania, ENNHRI Board member</li> <li>- Mirosław Wróblewski, Director, Office of the Polish Commissioner for Human Rights, ENNHRI Board member</li> <li>- Interactive Q&amp;A</li> </ul> Moderated by Katrien Meuwissen, ENNHRI Secretariat
14.00	Overview of third small group sessions: Follow up actions to ensure NHRIs can work effectively on AI

	Overview and instructions for third group sessions Sophie Hale, ENNHRI Secretariat
14.10	Small group sessions: Follow up actions  There will be four 30-minute small group sessions. Each group will focus on the same follow up action questions, with feedback at the end in plenary.
15:00	Closing and Next Steps - Erinda Ballanca, People's Advocate of Albania, ENNHRI Board member